PAUL QUINN COLLEGE

Paul Quinn College is a private, faith-based, four-year, liberal arts-inspired college that was founded on April 4, 1872, by a group of African Methodist Episcopal Church preachers in Austin, Texas. The school's original purpose was to educate freed slaves and their offspring.

PLANTING SEEDS TO A NEW BEGINNING...

RICHARD ALLEN CHAPEL

Our goal is to work with the 10th Episcopal District under the leadership of Bishop Vashti Murphy McKenzie and Dr. Michael Sorrell, President of Paul Quinn College, and the Board of Trustees on the renovation and beautification of the Richard Allen Chapel on the campus of Paul Quinn College.
